

Master Class with Chris Dupré

Working with legends the likes of Diana Ross, Janet Jackson, Prince, Brian Mc Knight and Sean "P. Diddy" Combs would be a dream for most, but for Christopher Payne Dupre' it's been one blessing after another. Training in various disciplines of dance from Jazz-Ballet, Hip Hop-Salsa has allowed Chris to perform with both the Los Angeles & Houston Grand Operas, on concert stages (Paula Abdul's Spellbound World Tour), and on Broadway in the original cast of Elton John and Tim Rice's "Aida". Chris has also had the privilege of working with such legendary directors as Rob Reiner (Rumor Has It), Robert Zemeckis (A Christmas Carol), Tom Hanks (That Thing You Do), Chris Columbus and John Landis. This Los Angeles native has staged performances for rock icons Jane's Addiction as well as choreograph their "Just Because" music video. Other international recording artists such as Kylie Minogue, Chayanne, Paulina Rubio and Enrique Iglesias have always sought out Chris' energetic style.

Chris has caused a stir performing and choreographing numerous television shows such as HBO's Arliss, Sister Sister, The 68th Annual Academy Awards, MTV Video Music Awards and the made-for-TV movie, "Cinderella" to name a few. He has also appeared in numerous commercials and feature films including "Rent" and "Newsies".

The ability to work with various levels of performers comes naturally to Chris as he tours the world-over (Germany, France, Italy, Canada, Japan and the United States) teaching various levels of dance workshops for all ages. He has done movement-coordination for actors Seth Green, Christina Applegate and Eric Balfour as well as choreographing dynamic performances for the NBA's Los Angeles Clippers, Sacramento Kings, and the world-famous Laker Girls.
